Pupils shine in musical about climate change

CHILDREN at a school in Barking have taken part in a musical about climate change.

The pupils, from Riverside School, danced and sang their way through Shine – the musical created by Professor Beth Osnes of the University of Colorado.

They were assisted by University of East London (UEL) students studying drama, applied theatre and performance.

UEL student Patricia Akoli, who took on the role of the sun, said: "The kids were quite open to it. They were willing to jump in and they had fun."

The musical is a project from the US-based Rockefeller Foundation's 100 Resilient Cities initiative, which encourages cities around the world to plan for the physical, social and economic challenges of the 21st century.

Prof Osnes, who travelled to Barking from Colorado to coordinate the performance, said: "This is a project that is using theatre as a tool for youth to be able to have a voice in authoring their city's plans for resilience."

"When you include youth, you include the entire community. Their parents can learn about what they're learning at school. Parents can be invited to the performance. It's a tool for community engagement."

Barking, which is representing London, is the mid-way point of a five-city world tour that includes Boulder in Colorado, New York City, Durban, and the Bay Area in California.

Footage of the five performances will be edited together to create a short film that Professor Osnes hopes will become "a tool for other cities that want to use creative, embodied methods for including youth".

Girl suffers life-threatening injuries in collision involving car and minicab

MAN DIES IN A13 CRASH

A MAN died following a two-car collision on the A13 in Barking in the early hours of Wednesday.

It happened on the Alfreds Way flyover at the junction with Lodge Avenue.

Police were called to the scene at around 2.20am and officers found a Vauxhall Vectra had collided with a VW Passat minicab.

The Vectra driver, a man believed to be 27, was pronounced dead at the scene.

His next of kin have been informed.

The occupants of the minicab, a male driver and his three passengers, had to be cut free from the vehicle by firefighters before being taken to an east London hospital.

A Met Police spokesman said that one of the passengers, a girl believed to be 13, was suffering from injuries that were being treated as life-threatening.

The driver and the two other passengers had injuries which were described as not life-threatening.

Officers from the Serious Collision Investigation Unit were at the scene and enquiries into the circumstances of the incident are under way. No arrests have been made.

Police are appealing for witnesses to the crash. Anyone who witnessed the collision, or the events leading up to it, is asked to contact the witness line on 020 8597 4874.

Win tickets to top Abba tribute show

THE world's longest-running Abba concert show is coming to Basildon to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Swedish supergroup's biggest selling hit – Dancing Queen.

The song was a million-selling, number one hit in 13 countries and forms the climax to the hit stage show Thank You for the Music, which is at the Towngate Theatre on Friday, February 26.

Show producer Michael Taylor says the production, now in its 23rd year, has been delighting fans for longer than Agnetha, Björn, Benny and Anni-Frid did during the 1970s and 80s.

"Combining Lycra-tight harmonies with superb musicianship, Thank You for the Music has outlasted Abba in their prime," he says. "Dancing Queen represents the pinnacle of the group's career, and we have produced a brand-new show rocking the sound of the 'right music' for 2016."

The setlist draws from Abba's nine number one hit singles, nine chart-topping albums and 19 top 20 singles in the UK, including Super Trouper, Waterloo, Mamma Mia, Thank You for the Music, Mamma Mia, Knowing Me, Knowing You, and of course, Dancing Queen.

Michael adds: "Seen the record-

MP's crossing fear after traffic woes

Tory delayed by congestion questions planned location of major new road

THURROCK MP Jackie Doyle-Price has called for an investigation into "gridlocked" traffic last Thursday, arguing that it should sound the "death knell" for a proposed new Thames crossing.

The Tory MP has asked the Government body to probe whether the incident would have occurred if a new lower Thames crossing it is recommending had been open and working.

Tailbacks from the Dartford Crossing "extended deep into Little Thurrock and Ockendon", claimed the Tory MP, "and directly onto the proposed routes".

In a letter to roads minister Andrew Jones, released to the local press, Mrs Doyle-Price wrote: "On Thursday, January 28, an incident which forced the closure of lanes at the Dartford Crossing led to gridlock on Thurrock's road network.

"It brought into focus exactly why residents of Thurrock are nervous about having another crossing on their doorsteps.

"While the intent of any new crossing is to alleviate congestion, many of my constituents are concerned that locating another crossing in Thurrock will simply add congestion on our roads.

"The gridlock lasted all day until late at night. By way of illustration, I left Westminster at 8pm and arrived at Rainham at 9pm. The remaining three miles of my journey took two hours.

"My assistant left at 5pm to travel 10 miles and ended up abandoning his car after four hours.

"Any new crossing must satisfy three criteria: It must alleviate congestion on the Dartford Crossing, it must not add to pressure on the A13 and M25, and it must not add to congestion on Thurrock's local road network.

"It is why I have consistently argued that any new crossing should be located further to the east.

"It is, however, quite clear that the traffic conditions on Thursday ought to sound a death knell to Highways England's favoured option."

Mrs Doyle-Price's office said it would release Mr Jones' reply to residents when it was received.

Battle to overcome marauding Vikings

WE have all heard of the Battles of Agincourt and Hastings, but few people today know that one of the bloodiest battles of the Viking era was fought in Essex.

As recalled in the 325-line Anglo-Saxon poem, The Battle of Maldon, a marauding army of Vikings were confronted by a force of East Saxons led by Ealdorman Brihtnoth in AD 991.

The Vikings had already pillaged Folkestone, Sandwich and Ipswich before they were confronted by Brihtnoth at Maldon.

The Vikings had established their temporary base on Northey Island, which is linked to the Essex mainland by a causeway, only accessible at low tide.

Brihtnoth and his militia force took up their position at the causeway end during high tide, when the two sides could only shout insults at each other.

Brihtnoth refused to pay the invaders to leave, challenging them to battle instead, even agreeing to let them cross the causeway to do so.

In true English style, the Saxon army formed their mighty shield wall and waited for the Vikings to advance.

The Vikings fired arrows and then spears into the massed ranks of Saxons, before the two forces became locked in bloody hand-to-hand combat.

It is thought that the battle was relatively even, but turned in the Vikings' favour when Brihtnoth was killed.

Although the Vikings were eventually victorious they had lost so many men that it is said that they had barely enough left to man their boats to leave, let alone continue with their raid on Maldon.

The poem, of which only fragments remain, tells the tale of Byrhtnoth in stirring detail, and it is through this poem that most of what we know about the battle has been preserved.

Top apprentice

AN APPRENTICE from Highams Park has been recognised as the best overall performer in prestigious annual construction industry awards.

Billy Caney, 24, won the title from London-wide training and placement agency K10, and came top out of 175 apprentices for professionalism and commitment.

He was nominated by his supervisors from K10 and the construction arm of L&Q, Quadrant Construction, for whom he has worked for the past six months on the former Walthamstow Dog Track development.

Billy said: "I would just like to thank K10 for this award. It was good to be recognised and I really appreciate it as it has motivated me further. Many thanks."

He is working towards a Level 3 electrical installation qualification NVQ at Hackney Community College every Friday.

Jack Speckman, K10's senior apprenticeship manager and Billy's supervisor, said: "Billy is a real asset to his team and is always keen to take on a new task and help out wherever he can."

"He has proved himself to be highly dedicated, a diligent worker and a quick learner."

"His bubbly personality and great work ethic have made him a great apprentice to work with."

Sarah Borien, social value business lead for L&Q, said: "Quadrant Construction and K10 have been working together on the construction apprenticeship programme for over two years. From the very beginning, Billy stood out as someone who was professional and determined, with an eagerness to learn and develop."

"It's been a pleasure to have him working on the Walthamstow Stadium site, and we wish him the best of luck in the future."

When Billy left school he took electronics at college and for a while worked as a trainee electrician at Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park with his cousin. When that ended he was unemployed for a year.

His Job Centre advisor arranged for him to attend an apprenticeship open day and he secured an electrical apprenticeship with K10.

Billy added: "K10 allowed me to pick up my electrical training where I left off and helped me to get important qualifications under my belt such as health and safety and fire safety awareness."

"They also found me more work with placements on construction sites."

"When I come into a house now I look to see how things work and like getting to improve my practical understanding."

"I really value the kick-start the apprenticeship has given to my career."

Raising a smile for fostering February

CAMPAIGN: Fostering advice

FOSTERING February is a campaign to create awareness around what fostering is about and dispel many of the myths that surround fostering, such as knowing you don't need to own your own home to foster or be in a relationship.

Children who come into care need a warm and safe family environment in which they can grow and achieve their full potential.

Becoming a foster carer is the first step you can take to make a real difference to a child or young person's life.

In the UK more than 67,000 children and young people live with loving foster families, who make a difference each and every day.

The National Fostering Agency is proud to be supporting the campaign again this year.

Contact us to find out more about becoming a Foster Carer at www.nfa.co.uk or visit the Facebook page at www.facebook.com/national-fosteringagency.

Have your say

on new river crossings in east and southeast London

We'd like your feedback on proposed new river crossings at Gallions Reach and Belvedere. The crossings would:

- Make it easier to cross the Thames between east and southeast London
- Help reduce cross-river journey times
- Create opportunities for new cross-river public transport links and improvements to walking and cycling options
- Support London's growing economy by better connecting businesses, improving access to jobs and encouraging development

To find out more and have your say, go to tfl.gov.uk/east-london-crossings

The consultation ends 12 February 2016

SPURS TOO HOT FOR BRAVE U'S

FOOTBALL

Colchester United 1
Tottenham Hotspur 4
FA Cup Fourth Round
Brian Jeeves reporting from the Weston Homes
Community Stadium

TWO goals from Belgian international Nacer Chadli eased Tottenham Hotspur to FA Cup victory over a spirited Colchester United side.

Spurs find themselves in a rich vein of form and fighting for silverware on three fronts.

Meanwhile Colchester had sought solace in the FA Cup, having so far endured a wretched season which has seen them record just five victories and sit rooted to the bottom of Sky Bet League One, eight points from safety.

Spurs boss Mauricio Pochettino showed both Colchester and the competition enormous respect by selecting a near full strength starting line-up, including England frontman Harry Kane and Danish playmaker Christian Eriksen.

But the crowd's early attention was drawn to a shocking clash of heads between U's defensive pair Tom Eastman and Alex Wynter.

The game was held up for several minutes while Eastman was led away for stitches. Wynter meanwhile, received extensive treatment before being stretched from the field.

Once back under way it was Spurs who controlled proceedings.

Richard Brindley hooked to safety after Kane and Kieran Trippier combined down the right.

BRACE: Nacer Chadli

Then U's goalkeeper Jake Kean did remarkably well to keep out a terrific strike from Eriksen.

At the other end, Spurs keeper Michel Vorm was finally called upon, racing from his goal to nod clear as Chris Porter sniffed for an opening.

Spurs continued to dominate. Erik Lamela's curling effort beat Kean, but clipped the foot of an upright, while Eriksen was bravely blocked by the heavily bandaged Eastman.

Spurs had a scare when Vorm juggled precariously as Porter looked to profit, meanwhile Eriksen was a whisker away, sending a delicate right-footed effort inches too high.

Just before the half-hour mark the north Londoners grabbed the advantage. Chadli found himself in an acre of space, and sent a fizzing strike beyond Kean from outside the box.

Soon after Kane passed up a couple of decent opportunities, firstly sending an angled drive into the side netting, then drawing a brilliant save out of Kean from a goalbound header.

Lamela was just off target with the opening chance of the second period, but Spurs were almost punished when Darren Ambrose's strike was scrambled behind.

Clearly buoyed, Colchester attacked with greater purpose. Gavin Massey drove into Vorm's midriff, while Porter was agonisingly short of making contact with an Ambrose cross.

But Spurs weathered the storm. Chadli should have doubled their lead, striking the top of the bar after Kean picked him out.

The U's resistance was broken when Eric Dier's long range strike took a deflection to wrong-foot the unlucky Kean.

Battling U's looked for a way back but Brindley drove over, while Marvin Sordell should have done better, hitting the outside of the post after racing clear of the visitors rearguard.

A flurry of late goals saw Spurs book their place in the fifth round and a home tie against fellow Premier League side Crystal Palace.

Chadli stooped to head home Trippier's centre to make it three.

And although the enthusiastic home crowd were lifted when Gavin Massey's shot squeezed over the line after hitting Ben Davies and the post, it proved to be little more than a consolation goal.

Tom Carroll added Spurs' fourth, turning in Chadli's centre via the bar.

Speaking after the game, Pochettino said: "It was very important the way we played the game and showed respect for our opponent.

"It's difficult to play against a side like this, they are very motivated and the FA Cup always has some magic."

Colchester chief Kevin Keen said: "I think there was a spell in the second half when we got on top and the crowd were behind us.

"You could feel that little bit of momentum building. But in those moments you've got to take a chance. We gave it a go. I've got nothing but pride for my lads."

Spurs were turning their attention back to the Barclays Premier League on Tuesday (7.45pm) with a trip to Norwich City.

Meanwhile, Colchester look to haul themselves away from the foot of League One at Southend United on Saturday (3pm).

Non-league round-up

Two on bounce for Braintree

By Brian Jeeves

BRAINTREE Town picked up where they left off during the week, as goals from Mark Phillips and Matt Paine earned the Iron three National League points against Chester at Cressing Road.

This victory came off the back of Tuesday's single goal success over Wrexham and has carried the Iron into 10th place, four points off the play-off places.

In National South, Concord Rangers produced a battling display to grab a point at title-chasing Maidstone United. Things looked bleak for the Beach Boys when they trailed 2-0, thanks to early goals from Joe Healy and Vas Karagiannis.

But the Canvey club showed their fighting qualities, hitting back to snatch a 2-2 draw with goals from Steve Cawley and John Easterford.

Chelmsford City, however, crashed 2-0 against a decent Sutton United side at the Melbourne Stadium.

East Thurrock United continued their Ryman Premier League promotion push with a 2-0 win at Burgess Hill Town. Lewis Smith and Thomas Wright were on target for the Rocks.

Elsewhere Martin Tuohy's priceless strike ended Canvey Island's recent poor run of results. The former Great Wokingham man struck 10 minutes from time to earn the Gulls a single goal victory over Farnborough at Park Lane. Meanwhile, Grays Athletic had to be content with a point after their clash with Wingate & Finchley ended goalless.

In Ryman League One North Thurrock were in decent form. Goals from Joe Christou, Tommy Cummings, Michael Toner and Ronnie Winn earned the Ship Lane outfit a 4-0 win at AFC Sudbury. Adam Mills and Sam Newson (2) helped Maldon & Tiptree to a 3-0 success over Barkingside, while Alex Teniola, Liam Nash and Arian Retkoceri found the net as Aveley won by the same margin at Phoenix Sports.

Redbridge won an entertaining match at Wroxham by the odd goal in seven and Witham Town grabbed maximum points with a 1-0 triumph over Waltham Abbey.

Tilbury and Haringey Borough played out a tense goalless draw, however, several of the region's Division One North clubs suffered defeats.

George Purcell's penalty was little more than a consolation as the Urchins went down 3-1 at Harlow Town. Ollie Canfer grabbed the only goal just before the break as Great Wokingham Rovers lost 1-0 to Bury Town at Burroughs Park, and Brightlingsea Regent were frustrated, going down 2-1 at Soham Town Rangers.

Romford also ended up empty-handed after visitors Thamesmead Town grabbed all three points in a 3-2 victory.

In the Essex Senior League there was a fantastic encounter between Burnham Ramblers and Basildon United at Leslie Field.

Bradley Warner (2), Daniel Howett and Michael Finneran were on target for the Bees in a match that ended 4-4.

Local rivals Ilford and Clapton battled out a 0-0 draw at the Cricklefield Stadium, and there were wins for Tower Hamlets, 3-1 at Southend Manor, and Stansted, 5-0 against Takeley.

Selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw White Ensign edge out Newham United at the Len Forge Centre by three goals to two. Meanwhile, in Division One, Old Chelmsfordians saw off Ongar Town 4-1 and Old Southendians beat Hutton 2-1.

FC Hamlets were emphatic winners in Division Two, thrashing Lakeside 9-2, while in Division Three Leytonstone United won 4-1 at Epping.

O's pay for defensive errors as revival falters

Leyton Orient

Leyton Orient 1
Cambridge United 3
Sky Bet League Two
By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

SLOPPY Leyton Orient's mini-revival came to an abrupt halt on Saturday with their defensive inadequacies once again cruelly exposed.

On the back of two successive wins heralding in the Kevin Nolan era, it was back to square one.

Cambridge soon took control, but were gifted their opener by the sloppiest of Orient defending.

There was no danger when Frazer Shaw found himself in acres of space after 10 minutes, but his woeefully underhit back pass was gleefully gobbled up by Ryan Donaldson, who rounded the stranded Alex Cisak and netted from the narrowest of angles.

The U's then took charge and comfortably controlled the contest against a side which was a pale shadow of the first two games under Nolan's stewardship.

Indeed, it was the O's who had to keep defending and Shaw partly redeemed himself to clear Lewis Page's dipping cross from under his own crossbar before winger Calaum Jahraldo-Martin was called into defensive duties, blocking from Harrison Dunk and Luke Berry.

Top scorer Jay Simpson endured a torrid time against Leon Legge and had only a mishit drive to show for a quiet first-half.

But, if one-nil was bad enough, then seven minutes after the restart it was Connor Essam's turn to gift-wrap Donaldson's second strike.

There seemed no danger when the centre-half was trying to usher a routine loose ball out of play.

But Donaldson persisted and chased the ball down, cut in and beat Cisak at his near post.

Ollie Palmer was replaced by Armand Gnanduillet who reduced the arrears almost immediately with a tap-in from Simpson's flick after the visitors had failed to clear Jobi McAnuff's initial flag-kick.

But any Orient joy was short-lived as Essam was again the fall-guy and lost possession to his nemesis Ben Williamson, who was then allowed to put in a square ball for sub Jimmy Spencer to ram home on 63 minutes from close range. Cambridge were in the driving seat and could have increased the lead after Berry went close.

Nolan came off the bench to replace Jack Payne, but Orient never again troubled the visiting defence.

Nolan admitted: "We were very sloppy. In the first 10 minutes you don't want to give a side a goal.

"I told the lads you can't make mistake after mistake if you want to play at this level.

"The goals weren't from Cambridge's fantastic play. It was from us not doing our jobs properly."

The new boss concluded: "We've got a good, honest bunch of hard working lads here. You're going to get days when we don't have the best of days. I have had plenty of those throughout my career.

"Those boys have given me everything over the last three games and perhaps today was a bridge too far.

"But, hopefully with a couple of players coming in over the next 48 hours, it's going to give them some competition."

O's Sean Clohessy said: "The manager has let it be known that he isn't happy."

Leyton Orient: Alex Cisak, Sean Clohessy, Mathieu Baudry (captain), Connor Essam, Frazer Shaw, Calaum Jahraldo-Martin (Blair Turgott 58), Jack Payne (Kevin Nolan 67), Nigel Atangana, Jobi McAnuff, Ollie Palmer (Armand Gnanduillet 54), Jay Simpson.

Cambridge United: Will Norris, Darnell Furlong, Leon Legge, Josh Coulson, Lewis Page, James Dunne, Ryan Ledson, Luke Berry (captain), Ryan Donaldson (Jimmy Spencer 61), Harrison Dunk (Robbie Simpson 83), Ben Williamson.
